Lodge Conference - Saturday Morning Edition

October 17, 2015

WELCOME TO THE 2015 LODGE CONFERENCE

From the Lodge Chief

My fellow Arrowmen,

The significance of our Order's centennial has been celebrated throughout this year in a multitude of ways. Conclaves, Arrowtours, and NOAC. For us here in Passaconaway Lodge, our Centennial Lodge Conference and Banquet. Arrowmen have taken part in many of the previously mentioned centennial events. Each of which personified the spirit of our Order in the form of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service. That spirit is here with us this weekend, and as we go through our trainings, activities, competitions, and celebrations, we contribute to that spirit.

As your Centennial Lodge Chief, I welcome you to the 2015 Centennial Lodge Conference.

~John Grace

From the Conference Chairman

Welcome to the 2015 Lodge Conference! As many of you know we are celebrating 100 years of service for the Order of the Arrow, and this conference is our lodge's celebration of this monumental event. We are one hundred years strong, and we will become even stronger a time goes on.

This conference can be your first step I becoming part of this legacy. As we celebrate our history, you can learn the skills that will form our future. This future will be forged in the fires of brotherhood. Tomorrow afternoon join with your brothers in the competition and form he bonds of brotherhood.

Whether you know it or not you are a part of our lodge's history. Join me as we celebrate it and from our future.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Jordan Dansereau

From the Lodge Conference Adviser

This conference is your chance to make a new friend, share interesting ideas, eat good food, learn a lot about the OA, but most important of all, have fun.

Yours in Service,
Christine Wilson
Lodge Conference Advisor

From the Banquet Chairman

I am very pleased by the turn out of our 100th anniversary banquet. This one was easily twice the size of previous banquets and I hope to be one to remember. There are numerous awards to be given and I hope this years banquet will leave a great impression for all future banquets, to look back upon and keep the high spirits going!

Sincerely,
Blake Bormuth
Banquet Chairman

From the Lodge Secretary

Hello Brothers,

Just a quick reminder for the Lodge that I will be accepting articles from anyone to be put into the Totem. Email me at justincalutti220@gmail.com with pictures, articles, or anything else you want the lodge to know. Examples include upcoming Chapter meetings, ceremonies, dances, etc. Please e-mail me with these things and they will be published.

Thank you.
Yours in Brotherhood,
Justin Calutti
Lodge Secretary

From the Trading Post Manager

Hello brothers!
What a great weekend we have planned for us! Especially for all you new ordeals that joined us this past September. If you didn't get a chance to stop by the trading post, then make sure you do this weekend! We are located off the parking lot past the Admin building, look for the OPEN flag! We have some pretty amazing patches straight from NOAC 2015 and we will also be putting some of our clothing items on display that will be sure to warm up your weekend the trading post will be open for business directly following lunch today, so make sure to come visit us! I hope to see you all there!

Yours in Scouting,
Brandon DeGrandpre
Trading Post Manager

Ceremony and Dance Team Patches

Are you a ceremonialist? Are you an Indian dancer? Do you know there are patches for these? They are awarded at the Lodge Conference to those who qualify. The time period is from September through August, so start now for next year. You need at least 5 activities including practices, learning, and performing. Check it out on the Lodge Website.

A Word from the Editor

Hello my fellow Brothers,

My name is Parker Richardson, and I'm helping Mr. Aykroyd with the Totem, which is our Lodge newspaper. I originate from Troop 75 out of Bow N.H. and the Wannalancit Chapter. I have achieved the Star Rank, and have almost reached Life. I have just entered the Order at this past Ordeal in September, and I have just taken over as an editor of the Totem, and am looking for contacts from each of your Chapter Chiefs, so I can more easily send out quarterly newsletters. Any ideas are welcome, please do not be afraid of sending me any. You can contact me at parker.s.richardson@gmail.com, for any ideas or questions.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Parker Richardson
Totem Editor

A Chicken's Prayer

"I dream of a better world, where a chicken can cross the road and its motives are not questioned." Amen

The 2015 NOAC Song

A brotherhood like ours will ever be unbroken.
No matter where our separate paths may lead.

And even in the darkest hours we'll always Be Prepared.
A brotherhood of service we shall be!

So gather 'round our circle. Weld tightly every link.

We'll catch the higher vision.
A Goodman has the wisdom.
